

Review Tests for Lessons 25- 36

- 1. They feared the consequences of yet another war.
 - a. juvenile
 - b. awkward
 - c. calamitous
 - d. repetitious

- 2. They'll quite happilya whole year's savings on two weeks in the sun.
 - a. blunder
 - b. exempt
 - c. squander
 - d. comprehend

- 3. The flames were by heavy rain.
 - a. confined
 - b. quenched
 - c. distressed
 - d. rehabilitated

- 4. The little lamp gave only a /an light.
 - a. feeble
 - b. untidy
 - c. sensitive
 - d. temperate

- 5. We must dumping waste in the sea.
 - a. cease
 - b. discard
 - c. scorch
 - d. redeem

- 6. Advertising companies are always having to think up new ways toproducts.
 - a. soothe
 - b. discard
 - c. elevate
 - d. promote

7. Her that she should have the best room annoyed everyone.

- a. blunder
- b. venture
- c. mythology
- d. insistence

8. The door swung open, a dead body lying in a pool of blood.

- a. pacifying
- b. disclosing
- c. compelling
- d. commending

9. Goodsfrom this tax include books and children's clothes.

- a. venture
- b. exempt
- c. censor
- d. quarter

10. For a low-budget film it has much to it.

- a. promote
- b. subsidize
- c. commend
- d. comprehend

11. Shearound America for a year, working in bars and restaurants.

- a. uttered
- b. roamed
- c. mourned
- d. exempted

12. He's just beenas director of the publishing division.

- a. appointed
- b. quenched
- c. prosecuted
- d. squandered

13. Land that has beenis richer in nutrients.

- a. betrayed
- b. fertilized
- c. compelled
- d. exhausted

14. A folk group led the singing of songs.

- a. feeble
- b. fertile
- c. thrifty
- d. patriotic

15. We have seen the value of our house sharply in value over the last six months.

- a. distress
- b. scorch
- c. resume
- d. diminish

16. There's no greater than waiting for the result of medical tests.

- a. torment
- b. elevation
- c. dejection
- d. recession

17. Although racial has not yet disappeared, skin color no longer acts as a bar to advancement.

- a. multitude
- b. prejudice
- c. legibility
- d. indifference

18. Broken water pipes and gas leaks have firefighters in their efforts, but the fire is now under control.

- a. resigned
- b. hindered
- c. nominated
- d. rehabilitated

19. The introduction of a common currency needs to beby effective political union among the member states.

- a. preceded
- b. drenched
- c. receded
- d. nominated

20. The birds across the tops of the waves, then dipped beneath them to catch fish.

- a. skimmed
- b. receded
- c. drenched
- d. resumed

21. The wind died down for an hour but then its assault.

- a. scorched
- b. obtained
- c. resumed
- d. redeemed

22. The surrounding area was by the heat of the explosion.

- a. related
- b. scorched
- c. elevated
- d. discarded

23. I've managed to him down a bit, but he's still pretty annoyed.

- a. soothe
- b. elevate
- c. discard
- d. precede

24. The recent worries over the president's health have speculation over his political future.

- a. prompted
- b. preceded
- c. diminished
- d. commended

25. She managed to save enough money to her jewellery from the pawn shop.

- a. redeem
- b. signify
- c. distress
- d. confine